SNAPPY GOOD TIMES AT COLONIAL COUNTRY CLUB.

When it comes to a cozy, get-together and love-me-one-another atmosphere, you'll have to hand the palm to the Colonial Country club. In its large, luxurious living room, where a real log fire crackles merrily, one forgets every care in the world. What moonlight is to summer, a log fire is to autumn, you know.

There will be another of the jolly informal dancing parties at the club on Saturday, Oct. 5. The music will be the best, as usual, and a dainty buffet luncheon will be served.

But, oh, my friends! There's just one more thing to come. There is much mysterious planning among the genial members of the entertainment committee. P. T. Dooley nods his head and smiles broader than ever at the mere mention of Halloween. Maybe it will be masquerade, and maybe spooks, but it's a sure thing that everyone who is near the Colonial club on Halloween night will appreciate the witches' festival as never before.

Weddings

Mosley-Lawhead.

The marriage of Miss Anna Mai Lawhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Lawhead, of this city, and Mr. Howard E. Mosley was quietly solemnized on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Linden Avenue Christian church, the Rev. Walter M. White, pastor of the church, officiating.

The pretty bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Minnie Deaton, as maid of honor.

Mr. Mosley had as his best man Mr. E. W. Richards, of Brichard, Miss. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a bridal tour to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hinchings, on Salsado avenue, the Rev. Prudence A. Fugh, of Nashville, Tenn., officiating.

The pretty bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a stylish suit of brown velvet, trimmed in seal with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and valley.

Miss Josephine Cole, maid of honor, was gown in a becoming model of dark blue kitten ear satin, with georgette, and wore a picture hat of black with pink plumes. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Killarney roses.

Mr. William Van Dresser was his brother's best man.

The house decorations were Jackson vine, ferns and cut flowers. The young couple plighted their troth before an improvised altar, which was outlined with palms, ferns and studded with roses.

A beautiful selection of nuptial music was given by Misses Miriam Clark and Chlo. Duessner and during the ceremony Miss Virginia Alexander played "Traumerei" on the violin.

The dining table was prettily draped in lace with a border of asparagus ferns and pink asters, with a bride's cake for a centerpiece, which the bride, amidst congratulations and good wishes, cut.

After an informal reception refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Van Dresser left for a bridal trip. They will be in their own home, 30 North Evergreen street, after Oct. 1.

AMERICAN MOTORS GO TO GREAT BRITAIN SOON

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A large quantity of American motor vehicles, possibly 5,000 may be admitted into Great Britain in the next few months, says the American chamber of commerce in London. This will include passenger cars, commercial cars, and motorcycles.

Up to the present time, importers have been rationed on the basis of 50 per cent of their 1912 imports, and proportionate monthly quantities up to Sept. 1, 1919, at which time the British government's "transitional policy is to be reconsidered. Those importers who established their businesses later than 1913 have not been getting anything at all.

The board of trade recently requested the American chamber of commerce in London to suggest a scheme which would give equitable consideration to all importers from America, old and new.

The plan has been ratified unanimously by the importers and the board of trade is now circulating the entire trade for their return on this basis.

This is declared to be only a temporary arrangement, and not to be taken as an indication of the British government's trade policy on motor vehicles after Sept. 1.

NO MAN'S LAND FAST RECOVERS FROM WAR

DOVER, England, Sept. 25.—Former British officers returning from France and Belgium, where they have been going over the ground where a year ago they were still fighting, express astonishment at the manner in which nature is blotting out the scars of the war.
